

The TMT Dummy Hot Stab is used to plug the female hot stab receptacles when they are not in use. The Dummy Hot Stab provides hydraulic integrity by blocking contaminants from entering the system. In addition, long term it protects the seals from marine growth, build up.

The TMT Dummy Hot Stab is typically tailored to suit the client specifications.

Features:

- Easy to install and remove
- Corrosion resistant materials
- Plastic or Stainless Steel
- Single to 6 Ports
- Field proven
- One piece dummy or combination of metallic handle and plastic body

Specifications:

- |                      |                        |
|----------------------|------------------------|
| • Dimensions         | ø97 x401Lmm            |
| • Weight in Air      | 2.22kg                 |
| • Weight in Seawater | 1.45kg                 |
| • Handle             | ROV D, Xylan Coat      |
| • Depth Rating       | Unlimited              |
| • Standard           | API 17HISO 13628-8 |

Specifications subject to change without notice. All rights reserved.